

Early Exploration Study Guide

- ▶ Primary Source – a source from someone who was at the event being studied
- ▶ Secondary Source- a source created after the event by someone who was not there
- ▶ Conquistador – Spanish Explorer and conqueror
- ▶ Columbian Exchange –the exchange of people, plants, animals, ideas and diseases between the old and new world
- ▶ Immunity – resistance to disease
- ▶ Northwest Passage- the fictional route to the north of America that was faster and safer

What to study?

- Primary vs Secondary Sources
  - Which is which?
  - Why are each useful?
  - How should we examine them?
- Why did Europeans explore?
  - 3 Gs?
  - Examples of each?
  - New technology
- Spanish Colonies
  - Important Conquistadors
  - Why did Spain win?
  - What were Spanish colonies like?
    - Socially?
    - Economically?
- French and Dutch Colonies
  - Effects of the Reformation
  - Why did they explore the northwest?
  - What were the French and Dutch colonies like?
    - Socially
    - Economically?
- Columbian Exchange
  - What is it?
  - What things were exchanged?
  - What were the effects of it?