

Industrialization Newspaper Article- Regular

Pretending you are a newspaper reporter in 1800's, write an editorial (an article with your opinion) discussing whether you are pro-industrialization or anti-industrialization. Use the information from the documents from class Monday and Tuesday.

Include one drawing to accompany your newspaper article. Also include a brief biography of the "author" and "artist" (you are creating these fictional characters - but they should be based on the reality of the time period).

Your article should be about 300 words including your about the author.

You should have in your article:

____/2 Your opinion on industrialization (basically your thesis) – Is industrialization a good thing?

____/2 A short biography of the author/artist

____/4 At least 4 reasons why you support/oppose industrialization

____/6 Elaboration on how/why those reasons show that industrialization is good/bad

____/6 A drawing/photograph that accompanies your article/represents what your article talks about
